Our Guest Professor: Joe Sweet

Joe Sweet was born again in 1977 after receiving a profound prophetic dream of the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus and a visitation of the Holy Spirit in which he was called to preach the gospel. He has been preaching since 1978. In 1991, Joe and Melinda ; his wife of 36 years,planted Shekinah Worship Center in Lancaster,California. It has since become an oasis of the presence of the Lord for all who are hungry.Melinda graduated from Bible School in 1981 and has been involved in multiple facets of the ministry from the beginning, includingworship and teaching. Joe has been called by God to equip and "make ready a peopleprepared for the Lord". Joe and Melinda havefive adult children: Elijah, Jana, John, Michael,Joshua, and Jessica.

The School of Ministers is an international one year training program designed to cultivate parts of humanity, love, and honor, while launching ministers into their callings.

Our vision is to fulfill the Great Commission through training, supporting, and endorsing ministers to do what God is calling them to do in the local church, on mission field, in the marketplace, and through various contemporary expressions and contexts.

School of Ministers is a kingdom partnership:

Revive the Nations and local churches.

Nations that have joined include USA, Korea, Japan, Mexico, Canada, Spain, Uganda, Cambodia,Nigeria, Kenya, UK, Pakistan, and Nicaragua
